

Upward Scripture Verses

2008 Season

Each week, your player will receive a scripture card that contains a Bible verse from their coach. By the following week's practice, your player will be challenged to learn their scripture verse and asked to recite it to their coach and fellow team mates during the weekly devotional. As long as your player demonstrates that they have attempted to commit the verse to memory, they will be awarded a green upward award star for their effort!
